Leesburg, VA 20175

Registration 3:30pm, CPE 4:00-5:00, Networking 5:00- 6:30pm

Are you ready to elevate your nonprofit's operations to new heights? Join us on September 5, 2024, from 4:00-6:30 PM at the beautiful Stone Tower Winery for an insightful and engaging networking and CPE session that you won't want to miss! Drinks and hors d'oeuvres will be provided, as well as 1 CPE credit.

Discover how to leverage cutting-edge technologies while mitigating cybersecurity and compliance risks. We'll explore functions and processes within the nonprofit sector that are ideal for automation, helping you identify where to start. By comparing, contrasting, and connecting intelligence and automation, you'll gain a comprehensive understanding of these powerful tools and their potential use cases. We will also discuss key considerations, including limitations, concerns, and unknowns, that help ensure a mindful approach. Additionally, hear firsthand from a nonprofit that successfully implemented an AI policy after recognizing the need for critical safeguards.

Learn practical steps to advance your technology strategies from basic to cutting-edge, establishing your organization for the future.

Objectives:

- 1. Examine use cases for intelligent automation and AI*
- 2. Assess risk and key considerations in adopting emerging technology*
- 3. Determine essential steps to create an AI policy*

Unlimited PTO, A Cultural Shift: How It Impacts Government Contractors Subject to the FAR and CAS as well as Nonprofits that have Federally Funded Grants Subject to the Uniform Guidance

presented by Paul Calabrese, GRF CPAs & Advisors

Increasingly, companies are making a strategic decision to provide unlimited paid time off (PTO) to compete for the best talent by offering better work-life balance. Before considering unlimited PTO as an incentive to new or existing employees, it is important to understand the implications. Government contractors subject to FAR and nonprofit organizations under the Uniform Guidance must understand what this benefit entails, what are the pitfalls, and potential challenges for unlimited PTO at the state level.

Join government contracting expert, Paul Calabrese, GRF Principal for a session outlining what government contractors and nonprofits should consider before implementing unlimited PTO. You will come away with a better understanding of the issues so that your company can make the right decision for both you and your employees.

Questions we will discuss:

What is Unlimited PTO?

Why is there interest?

What are some state restrictions?

How does it impact Government contractors under the FAR Subpart 31.2?

How does it impact nonprofit grant recipients under the Uniform Guidance 2 CFR 200?

What we learned from our client experience.

Scaling Success: Optimizing Your Financial Close Process (ATT)

12:00 PM - 01:00 PM EST

This course focuses on optimizing the financial close process for accounting teams, including accounting firms and their clients. It emphasizes achieving efficiency without sacrificing quality, aiming to enhance preparedness and reduce risks associated with growth and scalability. The presentation covers the importance of close optimization, addressing risk mitigation and preparing for various business opportunities. It introduces the CloseStrong Framework, which encompasses smart closing practices, trusted financials, event readiness, optimized technology use, nimble team development, and growth in accounting talent.

The course delves into implementing better close practices through a continuous improvement cycle. It covers client-focused approaches, timing and scheduling, data management, talent allocation, policy compliance, process standardization, effective governance, and technology optimization. Participants will learn to apply these principles to both client and internal closes through the use of practical tools and resources for each area of improvement.
