Ohio Education Library Media Association (OELMA)

Ohio Library Council (OLC)

REGISTER NOW

Registration for this event is only available through eventbrite (not myOLC)

Date: Fri., June 14, 2019

Location:

OCLC Conference Center

6600 Kilgour Place, Dublin, Ohio 43017

[map and directions]

Overview:

The conference will feature programs and experiences intended to improve Ohio's library workforce, facilitate partnerships, and support initiatives that improve the capacity of librarians and library staff to improve their knowledge and skills. Conference participants will have opportunities to network with other library staffs outside of their usual networks, learn what other types of libraries are doing, and explore mutual benefits across different types of libraries. They will discover what other types of libraries can do for and with them, learn to be thoughtful of other library types in developing new ideas, and find inspiration for new and innovative ways to support fellow library staff around the state.

Registration Fee: $45 | Registration Deadline: June 7, 2019

Please note: the registration fee is only $45 per person thanks to a grant from the federal Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS) awarded by the State Library of Ohio.

REGISTER NOW

Please note: Registration for this event is only available through eventbrite (not myOLC)

Hotel Accommodations: Please contact the OLC for a list of hotels in the area.

Continuing Education Credits: For those working toward their Ohio Public Librarian or Ohio Public Library Staff re-certification, this conference will count as six (6) contact hours of credit.

What's Included: All conference handouts as provided by the presenters. Morning coffee, lunch, and afternoon beverage break will be provided. Schedule and program is available on the

ALAO Annual Conference

The Academic Library Association of Ohio (ALAO) conference planning committee invites you to submit proposals for the 45th Annual Conference, Libraries Speak Up! Advocate. Collaborate. Educate., which will highlight the myriad ways we respectfully, effectively, and equitably speak up for our profession, our libraries, and our patrons through advocacy, collaboration, and education. All facets of the library community are invited to submit a presentation from public and technical services to librarians, staff, and students. Proposal formats include posters, roundtables, and 45-minute presentations.

Conference Date: October 18, 2019

Conference Location: Nationwide Hotel & Conference Center in Columbus, Ohio

Submission Deadline: April 12, 2019

Submission Form: <https://goo.gl/forms/8Ju2s7ezbsKqv4bz2>

We encourage thoughtful, timely proposals from all areas of library work. Possible topics include, but are not limited to:

- Innovative collaborations*
- Advocacy efforts for our patrons, our libraries, and the profession*
- Advocating for social justice and equity*
- Demonstrating value and telling our story*
- Outreach, including outreach to marginalized groups*
- Library instruction and information literacy*
- Advocacy, collaboration, or innovation in collections work*
- Marketing and communications*

More information and submission guidelines are available on the conference website

All presenters are responsible for their own registration and travel costs.
