Join your fellow CEQA geeks for casual, engaging lunchtime gatherings discussing the latest CEQA court rulings and what they actually mean for projects, agencies, consultants, and communities across California. We break down recent CEQA cases, debate project implications, swap CEQA horror stories from the field, and connect with others navigating California's famously complicated regulatory world. If phrases like "substantial evidence," "baseline analysis," and "fair argument standard" spark joy... you have found your people. Whether you are a seasoned CEQA practitioner or a CEQA-starter, this is your place to connect, learn, debate, and network with others who genuinely enjoy this stuff.
